Which of them do you have your most prominent memory? When are you most active? To Which is really important: What are your favorite animals from this? Final Question: Are you extracted or installed? The Elk: You've never lived in one place. You travel regularly, whether to escape from something left behind, or to try new and different things. & New people; new memories, that's what you are closer than anything else. When you find yourself looking back at where you come from, you move further from that point in your life. It's great for travel, but before you burn a bridge, make sure your heart is how it should be. Grass is always greener, but the taste of the house is always sweeter. Deer: You are a kind of shame. You'd rather be at home, read, watch TV, or even sleep on your dead days. You let very few people into your life, but you are good friends to those you let. You are often private & protected, and you're the listener in the conversation you have. Your comfort zone lies in the hands of just a few people, and it's okay. Trust is a big thing for granted, but don't get stuck to people who want into your life. Bear: You are a compass of love. People come to you with relationship issues, heart issues, and you're very good with that. It's hard when you're away from people who love you. You've never done anything, a trip for someone has no interest in you unless it's a journey to finding love that you don't have. For you, the best thing in the world is your husband or wife. To others, they love you for your compassion and forgiveness, because your offer is both simple. However, when someone makes you angry enough where it is difficult to forgive them, remember that they are human. You want their forgiveness too. The Wolf: Your life is your family. You wrap your thoughts and heart around them. You're closest to your children or parents, and you hope that you can be as close as possible to them, even if they've got their own lives. You believe in family networking, and want them to be close to home. Your home is where your family is, and that's easy to see, but let go is one of the hardest things you need to do. You can't check it out every day, or oddly when they're not around. Just relax and know that everything is fine. Buffalo: Strong and dying, you never kind of to sit around the house. You always work, or try to keep busy. It annoys you when you need to keep it still for something. Your home is in the work you do. That's where your friends are, that's where your heart is. You are kind of stubborn, and you like it when you get in your way. Being a strong one, often means that you do things for people a lot! And even if you like working for yourself and others, don't let people use you. People often turn to people who don't say no. Eagles: You hunters in men. You never give up when getting a gift. When you have a goal, you are the one who expands yourself to achieve it. You're an employee, a task performer, and your weaknesses become proud. Sometimes you try to get the best. You're trying to get the biggest murder or you think you're stolen above someone else. It's okay to have confidence, but just relax a little. You don't have to be the best, to be the best. Cage: You are a joke, a joke, You like to have a sound of laughter around you. Your motto is for your life to be lively, and that's great! Too many times, people are serious or boring, and that's no way to spend your time on Earth. Boring people bother you, especially the ones that are desperate. You love people like you, fun and witty. But others may find that annoying. Just slow down a bit in different settings, but always being yourself. Salmon: You are one to always look back on before moving on. You may be a scrapbook or take a lot of pictures. Your memories are fond of it, so you want to look back on cooler days. You are most likely wider among friends and family, as you learn from past experiences before moving forward. You forgive but never forget. Even if you can revel in your memories, don't forget to make a new one! Listen to new songs, new dance dances, and make new friends. Never get stuck in a rut, because you might sleep and wake up many years later. Then.
